June 2011

Sunday, June 12: Duende Poetry Series

The second reading of 2011 sponsored by the Duende Poetry Series of Placitas will be held on Sunday, June 12, at the Anasazi Fields Winery (3:00 p.m.) in Placitas Village. It will feature poets Bill Pearlman and Marilyn Stablein, who won the 2010 New Mexico Book Award for Poetry for her book Splitting Hard Ground. There will be a short open mic period after the two featured poets have read.

For all Duende Poetry Series readings, wine, free snacks, and non-alcoholic drinks, are available to the audience. The event is free, though we encourage donations for the poets. For more information about the event, contact Jim Fish at the winery at 867-3062, on-line at www.anasazifieldswinery.com, or by e-mail at anasazifieldswinery@att.net.

To reach the winery, turn onto Camino de los Pueblitos from Highway 165 in the old village of Placitas, across from the Presbyterian Church, for two stop signs, and then turn left into the winery parking lot. From outside Placitas, take I-25 to Exit 242, drive six miles to the Old Village, and follow Camino de los Pueblitos through two stop signs to the winery.
